EAGLE RIDGE RESORT & SPA
UNDERGOES INN ROOM RENOVATIONS

GALENA, ILL. - Eagle Ridge Resort & Spa will be bringing in the new year in style as they undergo a renovation to all of the resort's 80 rooms at their Inn. The renovation will begin in November and is expected to be completed before Christmas 2010, just in time for the holidays and the resort's winter season.

Part of the renovation will include the incorporation of new Phillips flat screen 37" high definition TVs, new carpeting, paint and wallpaper to the rooms, in addition to some other "surprises" to further compliment the Inn's scenic wooded and lake views of pristine 220-acre Lake Galena.

"We are giving the resort a 'refresh' as we modernize the overall look of our Inn rooms," said Ikhlas Ahmed, General Manager of the resort. "Overall the results will not only be impactful, but keep with the rustic country motif in an underlying modernized quaintness."

In addition to the rooms renovation, many of the Inn's public area and hallways will also be receiving some subtle, but noticeable "freshening up" to compliment and complete the revamping.

Despite the renovations, the resort will continue to run operations as usual with events and activities planned for their Thanksgiving Weekend and holiday kick off in particular.

"All staff will be on board throughout the entire renovation process to help ensure a seamless transition while continuing to offer the same excellent customer service that Eagle Ridge is known for," concluded Ahmed.
