"My wife and I have lived in the Territory for a little over a year now. As a recent retiree, I've been blown away by the quality of the golf. I played more rounds last season than I had in the previous decade! As a member, you have virtually unlimited access to sixty-three holes of truly championship courses. The topography of the area and the course conditions combine to make a challenging, but fair test of your game. Talk about scenic, all four courses really showcase the natural beauty of the area. We've made a lot of new friends in our short time here, and the staff is professional and help to make sure that your time here is enjoyable." - Tracy and Anne-Marie Lee, Residents since December 2020

A WORLD AWAY. TODAY.

Renowned for award-winning golf courses, Eagle Ridge completed a multi-million dollar renovation several years ago and continues to meticulously maintain and shape the courses to keep the original design and playability the way they were intended when the courses were first designed.

With over 100 bunkers, beautiful tree lined fairways, and plenty of winding creeks and streams Eagle Ridge golf courses prove to be the ultimate challenge for all players.

"The change in one's mood and outlook are promoted as soon as you approach the Eagle Ridge area. The topography is magnificent, unlike anything this close to Chicago. Inside the territory the four courses are truly a treat to play, with each one presenting a challenging, but fair test of your game. Our family has enjoyed coming to the Territory for the last 18 years." - Scott & Helena Weiser, Residents for 18 years
