

Maggie Truppa is a seasoned professional with a wealth of experience in event planning and a diverse background that uniquely positions her for success. Currently serving as the Senior Catering Sales Manager at Eagle Ridge Resort & Spa, Maggie has established herself as a prominent figure in the event industry, combining her expertise with a passion for creating exceptional experiences.

Maggie's educational foundation is rooted in excellence. She earned a Bachelor of Science degree in both Economics and Marketing from Dominican University, demonstrating her commitment to a comprehensive understanding of business dynamics. Further enriching her knowledge, she pursued a Masters of Arts in Teaching from National Louis University, showcasing her dedication to continuous growth and learning.

Prior to her venture into event planning, Maggie dedicated six years to the field of education in the Chicago area, a testament to her commitment to nurturing personal and professional development. Her career journey encompasses diverse roles, ranging from positions in banking, interior design, financial offices, and small business. This eclectic background has endowed Maggie with a multifaceted perspective that is reflected in her well-rounded approach to event planning.

Relocating from Chicago to Galena marked a pivotal transition for Maggie, as she pivoted her career trajectory towards event planning at Eagle Ridge Resort and Spa. Her exceptional organizational skills naturally aligned with the intricacies of event planning, leading her to assume a leadership role within the Resort. Maggie's meticulous attention to detail shines through in her flawless execution of numerous weddings and events, a testament to her dedication to perfection.

At the helm of the Wedding Studio, Maggie's leadership is characterized by initiative, thoroughness, kindness, and compassion. She stands as a guiding light for couples, orchestrating every facet of the process – from initial inquiry to the wedding day itself. Under her direction, each couple's unique vision is brought to life, making their dreams a tangible reality. Maggie, alongside the talented Eagle Ridge team, ensures that every couple feels cherished and special throughout their journey.

In addition to her professional accomplishments, Maggie is a reservoir of wisdom when it comes to business. Her valuable insight emphasizes the importance of recognizing the individuality of each client and the need to tailor services to their specific needs. This adaptable approach has been a cornerstone of her success, echoing her understanding of the nuances that contribute to client satisfaction and achievement.

Beyond her professional endeavors, Maggie finds solace and inspiration in her favorite movie, the Lord of the Rings Trilogy, showcasing her appreciation for epic storytelling. She shares a musical affinity with the legendary David Bowie, a testament to her eclectic taste. During her leisure time, gardening and painting serve as not only hobbies but as outlets for creativity and rejuvenation.

In summary, Maggie Truppa's journey is a testament to her ability to seamlessly weave diverse experiences into a thriving career in event planning. Her educational achievements, coupled with a dynamic professional background, have cultivated a skillset that is as multifaceted as it is exceptional. With an unwavering commitment to excellence and a genuine passion for creating memorable experiences, Maggie continues to leave an indelible mark in the world of event planning.
